

WICHITA AT NEWTON

Fairmount Boys Won a Hard Game From

NEWTON HIGH SCHOOL

Yesterday on the Grounds of the Latter.

Kl, Yl, Yl, Boom, Bahl!

Fairmount, Fairmount! Rah, Rah, Rah!

This was the yell that greeted the ears of the spectators when the whistle ended the last half of the football game at Newton yesterday afternoon.

This was the much talked-of game between the Newton eleven and the Fairmount college team of this city. The Newton team went down in defeat before the terrific rushes of the Fairmount men in what was probably one of the hardest and most fiercely contested games that has ever been played on the Newton gridiron.

The day was chilly and raw and very disagreeable for the spectators, but a large crowd witnessed the game. Groups of pretty young ladies, bedecked with ribbons and cheering on their favorites, was one of the pretty features of the day. The game was a very clean one, and one of the noticeable features was the different tactics used by the two teams. Newton used the Pennsylvania system exclusively, while Fairmount used a more open form of play. These teams met once during the early part of the season and after a hard game the score resulted in 9 to 0. Yesterday's game was a much harder one, and the score of 6 to 9 proves Fairmount's supremacy. The Fairmount men are proud of their victory for the Newton team has beaten some of the heaviest teams of this vicinity, among them the Friends' university of this city. At no time during yesterday's game was Fairmount's goal in danger, and with only two minutes to go the game was played entirely in Newton's territory. This is Fairmount's last game for this season and its many friends are proud of the work of her men. They met the strongest school team in this part of Kansas at Wellington last Monday and had the best of the game in a score of 10 to 0. The men had hardly recovered from the effects of this game when they met Newton yesterday and that makes the victory seem that much more complete to their friends. At no time during the past years has football been as popular as it has been this season and the interest in the Thanksgiving game is also increasing.

Fairmount won the toss and chose the kick-off. Newton defended the north goal and at 3:45 L. Alexander kicked off for Fairmount to Newton's 25 yard line. Newton secured the ball and with terrific pushes started for the Fairmount goal. For a short time the Fairmount men failed to get into the game. They soon rallied and secured the ball on downs. Alexander and Baldwin were sent around the ends for good gains. Fairmount kept the ball on downs and Newton tried kicking the line for short gains. Again the Fairmounts took a brace and started up the field. This time despite the opposition of the strong wind and the efforts of the Newton team, they nearly reached Newton's goal. Newton's defenses became too strong and they secured the ball on downs. Line backs were tried and they were soon forced to punt. The ball went into Fairmount's territory and was secured by L. Alexander. Fairmount, by long and quick by her backs, started up the field and again reached Newton's 25 yard line. Here Fairmount kept the ball on downs. Newton made heavy attacks on the line, but Fairmount held firm and secured the ball. By hard line bucking they had advanced it to the 15 yard line when the whistle blew for the end of the first half. Score, 0 to 6.

After the intermission Newton kicked off to Fairmount's 25 yard line. The ball was secured by Morris of Fairmount and returned 5 yards. From this point Fairmount, by end runs made magnificent gains. The ball was advanced to Newton's 25 yard line and soon went to Newton on downs. Newton tried Fairmount's line for short gains, but Fairmount soon held firm and secured the ball. The ball given to E. Alexander for a good gain around the end. At this time the crowd interfered with the play and time was called until the field was cleared. After play was resumed E. Alexander was again given the ball and plunged through the line for a touchdown. L. Alexander kicked an easy goal. Score 6 to 0. Newton kicked to Fairmount's 20 yard line and Fairmount started down the field again. Without feeling the ball they reached Newton's 20 yard line when the whistle blew and the game was over. The line-up of the respective teams was as follows:

Fairmount. Newton.
Jordan.....center.....Ruddy
Dowd.....right guard.....Huff
Barlow.....left guard.....Telfer
Marston.....right tackle.....Develin
Ross.....right end.....Laudis
Boyle.....left end.....Billick
Hoop.....quarterback.....Sanner
E. Alexander.....right halfback.....Hardman
Baldwin.....left halfback.....House
L. Alexander.....fullback.....Myers
Referee: Splinter; umpire, Cooper; time-men, Young, House, Seave, 8 to 4.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The defense of the Fairmount team was magnificent. In this respect they were superior to Newton.

E. Billick, Newton's left end, did some fine playing all through the game. He is one of Newton's strongest men.

E. Alexander made some splendid end runs. Alexander is one of the fastest backs playing on Wichita teams.

Telfer, one of Newton's guards, is very strong in that position and is a very aggressive player.

Baldwin is one of the hardest line backs that Wichita has ever produced.

L. Alexander made another one of his long punts. Alexander is a coming full-back.

Newton's interference is very strong but the Fairmount ends were equal to the occasion.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appealing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because it is properly prepared by mixing with the finest coffee, but is free from all the injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nervous system. It is a stimulant but a healthful one, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 15c as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

THEN AND NOW.

To say that a man has Bright's disease was once considered equivalent to saying that he stood in the valley of the shadow of death. The end was only a question of time. But that was before Warner's Safe Cure had spread its benefits over the land.

C. H. Lincoln, of Medford, Mass., says:

"I had typhoid fever, and after it came kidney trouble, and it was whispered around that I had Bright's disease of the kidneys. I knew what that meant, so I pitched the medicine I had outdoors. I then bought one bottle of Warner's Safe Cure, and took it according to directions. The first bottle gave me relief and I bought a second. Before that was gone I had gained nearly ten pounds. I continued taking Safe Cure, and it cured me."

"I am fifty-nine years old, and enjoy as good health as any man of my age. If anyone has kidney trouble and Warner's Safe Cure will not cure him, nothing will. I believe it the best and only cure for kidney disease on earth."

Nowhere does the proverb, "Delays are dangerous," apply with such force as in kidney derangement. When Bright's disease has set in the kidney tissue is breaking down and passing away every minute. The strength of the body is sapped steadily, surely.

Inasmuch as Warner's Safe Cure alone stops kidney degeneration, should it not be used without an hour's delay when pain in the back and head, a cold skin and bad digestion give unmistakable warning?

Fairmount strengthened herself by placing Boyle at left end instead of Herrick. Boyle played right guard until the re-appearance of Dowd.

Wichita rooters were very much in evidence yesterday. Wait Henrich and J. L. Papes led the aggregation.

"Little" Oscar Hoop is a coming quarterback. His work yesterday was of high order.

LIFE OF MRS. EDDY

Furnished for the Eagle by Mrs. Whitney Tucker.

Mrs. Whitney Tucker has furnished the Eagle a biographical sketch of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of Christian Science. This excellent article reveals the leader of the Christian Science movement in a way that is new to most readers. It is especially new in the friendly setting of her New England home, among the hills of New Hampshire where she was born and reared and where she still loves to dwell in the busy retirement of "Pleasant View," in the suburbs of Concord.

The article is written by a Christian Scientist of Boston, a Mrs. Williams, who has evidently been faithful in glancing the facts in regard to the life of Mrs. Eddy, for she relates some incidents never before published, of the home life and training of the now famous woman, which show how her experience prepared her for the work she has accomplished. The article is illustrated with twenty-five half-tone engravings, which add greatly to its value as history. Some of the scenes of Mrs. Eddy's childhood are particularly interesting to students of Christian Science. During the era of Christian Science building begun by the Christian Scientists five or six years ago, they have erected many beautiful edifices in the leading cities of the country. A few of the more costly of these are represented in the illustrations. They suggest the enduring character of the religion which Mrs. Eddy founded.

GLORIOUS NEWS.

Come from Dr. D. B. Cargile of Washington, D. C. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters have cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the supreme remedy for scrofula, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 25 cents. Sold by G. Gehring druggist, Guaranteed.

AFTER FOURTEEN YEARS

Letter Found Yesterday Mailed Fourteen Years Ago in Ohio

A letter was picked up on the street yesterday, addressed to H. A. Ruzza, Wichita, Kansas, which was mailed in a town in Ohio in December, 1885, fourteen years ago, and received at the Wichita office three days after and presumably delivered. This letter was returned by the finder to the postoffice yesterday by the hands of a carrier. What is queer about the matter is the letter has never been opened and looks little worse of the wear. The postoffice force figures it out that the letter has been carried all this time in the pocket or lining of the judge's coat unopened and that it must have dropped on the street yesterday where found.

WAS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Mr. Irons, of This County, Once an English Soldier There

Yesterday Mr. C. H. Irons, of the West Side, entertained to dinner Mr. Eliza Irons, of Eagle township, this county. During the day Mr. Irons called on the Eagle. He has been in South Africa and is greatly interested in the Boer war. Mr. Irons was from Warwickshire and served in the British marine artillery. He thinks that South Africa would have taken kindly at once if he had the men to spare. Mr. Irons says that the English understand that they have a hard task and are not deceived in that respect. They keep on throwing men into that country until they win.

GOOD COMES OF WAR

Thankful for Expansion and Check of Hostilities.

SERMON OF REV. SLUTZ

Tells of the Blessings That Came of the Spanish War

Of all the Thanksgiving services held in the city, probably the largest crowd attended those at Plymouth Congregational church. These were the union services for the churches in the central part of the city, comprising the First M. E. church, the First Baptist church, the Central Christian church, the First Presbyterian church and the Plymouth Congregational church. The magnificent new edifice was crowded to the walls. The music by the Plymouth quartette was appropriate and excellent. Besides the quartette, Mrs. Wilson sang a solo.

Rev. Dubber, of the Central Christian church, conducted the responsive service; Rev. Wareham, of the First Baptist church, read the Scripture lesson; Rev. Bradt, of the First Presbyterian church, made the opening prayer, and Rev. Thayer, of Plymouth Congregational, led in singing the "Gloria." The Lord's Prayer was chanted by the entire congregation.

Rev. Slutz, pastor of the First M. E. church, delivered the sermon. He preached from the text: "Oh, give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." In part, Rev. Slutz spoke as follows:

"The Bible is a volume of praise. We are admonished to praise God in the morning, at noon, in the evening and in the silent watches of the night. Every devout believer in the revelation of God should be filled with the spirit of thanksgiving. Every thoughtful soul should thank God for this national occasion. For the spirit of appreciation which is found in the proclamations of our president, our governor and the mayor of our city. The Thanksgiving service is particularly American. Our Pilgrim Fathers inaugurated the beautiful custom on the greenward just above Plymouth Rock in 1621. It was observed at the instance of Governor Bradford in recognition of the mercy of a kind Providence, in saving the infant colony from grim death by starvation; when he sent men out foraging that they might after a more special manner rejoice together."

"Our colonies observed the custom until President Washington appointed a day in 1789 to render thanksgiving unto God for the adoption of the constitution. The American people have been called together many times since that memorable occasion, but the proclamation with which we are especially concerned today is that of our chief, President McKinley. In it he recounts many blessings brought to us in the changing course of the seasons, and declares it most and right to return solemn thanks to God, the All-giving Source whence they flow. We are to be thankful that no great pestilence has invaded our shores. While many have suffered from disease, no scourge has prevailed. The general health of the people has been good."

"We should be thankful that liberal employment waits upon labor; that abundant crops have rewarded the efforts of the husbandman in almost every section of the land, and especially in Kansas. 'Have you considered the greatness of this year's corn crop? Loaded in cars in a single train, the engine would be in New York City and the caboose in San Francisco.'"

"Increased comforts have come to many homes; our national finances have been strengthened; the honor of our public credit has been sustained; all branches of industry and trade are having a great degree of prosperity. This is true from a national point of view, and particularly true in our own commonwealth, and in the Peerless Princess of the Plains. Nearly $400,000 have been expended for new buildings and in restoring old ones in Wichita. Our wholesale and retail merchants have prospered, and the volume of business well-nigh doubled."

"We should render thanksgiving to the skies because American patriotism has been exalted. The people of our Pilgrim and Revolutionary fathers still find place in the heart of every true American. Our army and navy have the unequalled respect of the civilized world. We occupy a place among the nations of the earth which is indeed enviable. During the last year honorable peace has been ratified with Spain. The people of Cuba and Porto Rico, who were oppressed by the tyranny of that cruel, bloodthirsty power, are enjoying something of the liberties which belong to this western world. God has sanctified the maintenance of this larger trust by granting particular blessings to us as a nation, together with the citizens who, for the first time, are now living under the protection of the American flag."

"We ought to be grateful to God that every indication points to the stopping of hostilities on the island of Luzon. Some token hearts have thought to have forsaken our trust and permitted Aguinaldo and his band of insurrectionists to have ruled at will, would have been both humane and patriotic; but hear the words of Admiral Dewey, who speaks with the knowledge which no other commander could possibly command: 'There has never been a moment since the first gun was fired that the United States could have withdrawn from the islands, and the reasons set forth in the commissioners' report as to whether permanent American control is essential are, in my opinion, irrefragable. There is no other alternative.' Aguinaldo and his insurgent band will soon begin to enjoy the benefits of a free people."

"We should rejoice that sectional hatred is no more. Gallant General Joe Wheeler! Sons of the Union and Confederate soldiers, the cowboys of the plains, sons of millionaires."

"Where is the patriotic American citizen who is not glad, this Thanksgiving day, that Protestant Christianity is having larger opportunity in the wide world than ever before?"

"Churches and schools have flourished. This is true in our own city, which is rapidly becoming an educational center. Our public schools, academies and colleges are having a larger number of students and a better grade of teachers than formerly. Every church organization in the city of which I have any knowledge has increased in numbers and in effective service."

"The homeless and poor within our borders are cared for with a greater degree of kindness. The union of the charities of the city in one organization, under the head of 'Our United Charities,' are meeting many necessities in a systematic way. The injunction of our Saviour, 'The poor ye have always with you,' is having new meaning to many people. Hospitals, homes for the aged, orphanages and asylums of every sort are increasing in numbers as never before. The spirit of that queenly woman, Helen Gould, is having a salutary effect upon the hearts of many."

"Besides all this, we are richer in genuine sympathy and brotherly kindness than we were one year ago."

"Every soldier boy who died at his post of duty has not only been mourned in the home from which he went, but every mother's heart has gone out in sympathy and love to her who wept alone. Not only the kinsmen of Major General Guy V. Henry, but the American people, one and all, gathered around his bier in sympathetic thought and mourned the hero's untimely death."

"When the telegraph announced the death of Major John A. Logan every American woman was moved with deep compassion for the aged mother in Washington and the young wife in Ohio."

"How the nation stood by the bier of the late Vice President Garret A. Hobart, only the other day, and thought over again the many manly traits which distinguished his life. From the president of the nation to the little newsboy upon the street, he was beloved for his universal courtesy and gentleness. His perfect confidence in a gracious God and his unwavering belief in Jesus Christ made his death triumphant and his memory blessed."

"And doubtless I speak to some this morning whose homes have been desolated by death. At the Thanksgiving table today there will be a vacant chair."

Rev. Slutz closed his sermon with strong expressions of faith and comfort, and his sermon was altogether a beautiful and spiritual one well adapted to the occasion of Thanksgiving day.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

BIGGEST THIS SEASON.

The largest audience of the season gathered last night at the Crawford theatre to see the comedy "Two Married Men." The matinee also drew a much larger house than any matinee of this season. The entire house was filled from gallery to the orchestra pit and additional seats were taken in the aisles in the evening. Those who failed to accommodate the large crowd and at least one hundred stood during the entire evening. Which of itself is a compliment to the performance. Mr. Shilling, of musical fame, is the proprietor of the show and his business everywhere has been phenomenal.

roduced a very excellent musical specialty that met with a rousing reception, and he was enthusiastically encored. Taken as a whole there were many laughable situations in the piece, and as a fun producer it is above the average farce.

Next attraction—"Under the Dome," tonight.

The Morey Stock company will probably be at the Crawford Christmas. Their success this season is well deserved from all reports.

Council Grove, Kan., Sept. 30, 1899.

The Morey Stock company played the Fair date to the largest business ever done in the history of the house, turning people away Thursday and Friday nights. Their plays are all new, and they carry finer scenery and more of it than was ever seen in my house. My patrons were more than pleased.

GEORGE STEVENSON, Manager Opera House.

Lyceum theater last night held one of the largest audiences of the season. Crowded from floor to roof and with a fashionable assemblage. The magnet of attraction was the well known and popular spectacular extravaganza "Spider and Fly," brighter and more brilliant than ever in gorgeous scenery and with more specialties and up to date features.

The ballet and chorus comprised sixteen shapely girls. Georgia Turnam, the extravaganza artist, is a pronounced stage beauty and essayed the role of "Lord Razzle Dazzle" in a dashing manner. The prima donna, Mable Leclair, sang charmingly. Isabelle Underwood, an excellent and well trained contralto voice and her songs received marvellous applause. The Frandola sisters in their grotesque specialties made a hit and were a decided novelty. The hit of the evening were the celebrated Romulo brothers in their wonderful head to head and hand balancing. "Silvia" in her artistic electric changes was a pleasing feature. The Howells did a remarkable revolving globe specialty. The large audience was appreciative throughout.—St. Joseph (Mo.) Herald, Nov. 2.

Lincoln J. Carter, who is known as the author of several successful melodramas, including "The Fast Mail, The Tornado and The Heart of Chicago, has secured the largest kind of a hit with his new play, "Under the Dome," which comes to the Crawford theater tonight. The action of the play takes the characters over a broad territory and gives opportunity for some startling scenic effects and some very beautiful sets. The two big sensations of the play are the ferry boat trip from Jersey City to New York and the reproduction of the awful hurricane at Apia, which proved so destructive to the German and American navies. In addition to these are some beautiful sets showing familiar Washington scenes and one of the capital humiliated. The play is said to be very strong dramatically.

Lewis Morrison's complete production of Goethe's masterpiece, "Faust," which has long since become one of the leading and most interesting of high class theatrical offerings, will at the conclusion of the present tour complete a series of the most successful seasons ever recorded in theatrical history.

The press of the different cities where Joseph Jefferson's sons have played in his "Rip Van Winkle" speak in the highest terms of the work of the young men, especially Thomas Jefferson, who is counted on to be a fit successor to his illustrious father. The St. Louis Republic says that in the third and fourth acts it was almost impossible to distinguish the interpretation of father and son, so good was the young man. This young man, who is the principal comedian of the Jefferson Comedy company, will appear at the Crawford theater soon and who will be seen as Herick Von Bookman and William, as Owickie. They carry the entire production and a capable company of artists.

MINERS READY TO RETALIATE

Work Stops Monday if Reese Is Not Honorably Released by Them.

Pittsburg, Kan., Nov. 30.—The excitement in union labor circles resulting from the action of Federal Judge Williams, sitting at Fort Scott, in sentencing John P. Reese, the Iowa member of the national executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, to serve three months in the federal prison for alleged contempt, culminated today in an order for retaliation. Tonight an order was issued by the executive board of District No. 14 for a general suspension of work on Monday in the entire district on Monday next if by that time Mr. Reese shall not have been released. It is ordered that the suspension shall remain in effect until Mr. Reese shall be released in an honorable manner by the federal court. If it is strictly observed the order for suspension will affect thousands of miners in the southeastern Kansas district. All union miners working in the vicinity of Pittsburg have been called to meet in this city tomorrow morning.

and regard them as an excellent toilet article. Querer isn't it to call them that, but will tell I explain and it won't sound so odd. In fact, I always keep them on my dressing-table and take one just before leaving for my usual functions. Before I began their use, I was troubled with indigestion, I had a severe headache frequently and I had dyspepsia so bad that I could scarcely eat anything with relief. I was always dizzy after any quick movement, as rising from a chair, and was seized with such an attack frequently that my head would fairly reel. My complexion became sallow and pimples came on my face. I heard of Ripans Tabules and purchased some. After a short time my usual complexion returned; the pimples are all gone, as you see, and I am not dizzy as before. You can see now why I think them a valuable toilet article. Why I would just as soon think of going without my hair combed as neglect to take a Tabule when I go out for the evening."
